

Professor and Dr. Alexandro Bonifaz

General position: Medical mycologist, I have been working in General Hospital of Mexico (GHM), the School-Hospital more important in Mexico; for almost thirty years. My current position is Head of Mycology section depends of the Dermatology Service. Area of work is: cutaneous infections (superficial, subcutaneous and deep mycoses), antimycotics. Specific area: tineas, mycetoma, sporotrichosis, chromoblastomycosis, histoplasmosis and mucormycosis.

Research: Investigator of GHM; National investigator of the Health's systems of Mexico & Researcher of Investigator's National System (CONACYT)

Educational and Teaching experience: Grade's professor of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) since 1981 and Professor of postgraduate since 1989. Medical Mycology's professor in GHM since 1985. Membership in several Scientific Societies, like: Mexican Academy of Dermatology; Ibero-Latin-American of Mycology; Centro-American & Caribbean Dermatology Society; International Society of Human and Animal Mycology (ISHAM); Mexican Society of Medical Mycology (Founder and ex-president)

Production: Author of multiple scientific and spreading articles, chapters of books and author of book: Medical Basic Mycology (in Spanish), with 4 editions (McGraw-Hill editors).