16 /03 Tuesday

Iguassu auditorium

09h00 – 12h00 – ISHAM sponsored Symposium – Neglected Mycoses in South America
Chairman: Flavio Queiroz-Telles

Faculty

Kathrin Tintelnot - Robert Koch Institute, Berlin (Germany)
Ricardo Negroni- Hospital Muniz, Buenos Aires (Argentina)
Bodo Wanke, Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, Rio de Janeiro (Brazil)
Roberto Martinez, State University of São Paulo (Brazil)
Conceicao Pedroso Azevedo, Federal University of Maranhao (Brazil)
Flavio Queiroz-Telles (Brazil)

Agenda

Difficult to treat mycoses of the skin
Challenges of chromoblastomycosis in the North of Brazil
Actinomycetomata In Argentina,
Why paracoccidioidomycoses, the main endemic systemic mycoses in South America is a neglected disease?
Histoplasmosis a neglected disease
Imported Mycoses in Europe: The hole of a reference center