

16 /03 Tuesday

Iguassu auditorium

09h00 – 12h00 – ISHAM sponsored Symposium – Neglected Mycoses in South America

Chairman: Flavio Queiroz-Telles

Faculty

Kathrin Tintelnot - Robert Koch Institute, Berlin (Germany)

Ricardo Negroni- Hospital Muniz, Buenos Aires (Argentina)

Bodo Wanke, Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, Rio de Janeiro (Brazil)

Roberto Martinez, State University of São Paulo (Brazil)

Conceicao Pedroso Azevedo, Federal University of Maranhao (Brazil)

Flavio Queiroz-Telles (Brazil)

Agenda

Difficult to treat mycoses of the skin

Challenges of chromoblastomycosis in the North of Brazil

Actinomycesmata In Argentina,

Why paracoccidioidomycoses, the main endemic systemic mycoses in South America is a neglected disease?

Histoplasmosis a neglected disease

Imported Mycoses in Europe: The hole of a reference center